Final Assignment

How can Pakistan's education system be improved?

In order to improve the education system of Pakistan, it is necessary to take the following related steps.

- To improve the education system, first of all we have to make it according to the principles of Islam.
- We should make education free so that the children of the poor can get education like the children of the rich.
- We should make the syllabus easy, not English to copy western civilizations and make it so difficult that the children don't understand, but in the basic classes, the syllabus should be easy.
- The education system of children should be run in such a way that they go to school or college universities only to give them moral and religious worldly training and not to teach them about copying western civilizations like music in colleges and universities today. There are concerts etc. Such things should be completely banned.
- These are some of the ways by which we can improve the education system.

How to improve the economy of Pakistan?

- In order to improve the economy of Pakistan, more and more businesses should be established in Pakistan which can also create employment for the unemployed people in the country and make products that can be exported abroad.
- To improve the economy of Pakistan, domestic products should be promoted more
- To improve the country's economy, people should be taught free different skills that they can learn and increase the country's economy and eliminate unemployment.
- In order to improve the economy of our country, skilled and intelligent people should be appointed to good and big positions and not recommended and uneducated people who are not capable of doing anything. And they make the country's economy worse.

What steps should be taken to improve the law system of Pakistan?

- The law system of Pakistan should also be adapted to the principles of Islam so that a good and ideal society can be established.
- People holding high positions in the courts should be sworn in to ensure that they are the guardians of making decisions according to justice and fairness.
- People who know the history of Islam well and are familiar with it should be appointed to positions so that they can continue to carry this matter according to Islamic principles.
- Whether the offender is big or small, rich or poor, black or white, everyone should be treated equally.
- The day we started giving equality to everyone in the law and the guardians of the law stopped taking bribes, the day our country became ideal country.

How can we prevent youth from going out through the IT system?

- We need to pay more attention to the IT system.
- More and more people should tend to learn information technology skills and bring foreign money into the country while staying in their own country.

- For those who cannot pay the fees of expensive courses in information technology, such courses should be arranged at a low fee or completely free, which they can learn and bring to their work while staying in the country.
- People who already know the skills of information technology should be encouraged to teach and involve others.
- Those people who do not get any job while staying in the country, when they can earn good money sitting in Pakistan by learning information technology skills, then automatically our youth will stop going out and stay here in their country and serve their country.
- Because these are the youth who have to take over the running of the country in the coming times, so they should be provided with such opportunities that they can generate good income while staying here and run their house well so that they don't have to go out.

What can we do for the release of Dr. Aafia Siddiqui and to help Palestine?

- For the release of Dr. Aafia Siddiqui and for the support of Palestine, we must inspire our youth more and more to step up for it.
- We should tell our youth such historical events that our elders sacrificed for the sake of Islam, for the honor of their women and for the sake of their country.
- We must make our youth aware of the importance of what is the reward of those who fear Allah, those who help the oppressed, and those who wage Jihad in Allah's way.
- We should release Dr. Aafia Siddiqui at all costs and bring back the daughter of our country, the daughter of our Islam, because she is our honor.
- We all should actively participate in helping the Palestinians and never back down so that by defeating the enemies we can show them how much power we have in muslims.

What should be the aim of a Muslim's life?

- The one and only goal of a Muslim's life should be to please Allah Ta'ala. Because man has come to this world only to please Allah Ta'ala, all other worldly tasks come later.

- in order to gain the pleasure of Allah Ta'ala, a person should take the following steps.
- A Muslim should always be brave who can always stand up for the protection of his religion Islam for the protection of his country that he should not be a weak coward who is afraid of anyone.
- A Muslim should always be the one who helps the poor and oppressed and not the one who oppresses them.
- A Muslim should be truthful and honest in his life and should be just because a liar, deceiver, cheater is never a Muslim.
- A Muslim should be a man of honor who would do anything for the honor of his country's sisters and daughters.

What has benefited me from the SDL program?

- SDL program is a very good opportunity for those young people who really want to do something in their life, want to be something and need a compassionate mentor who can guide them to that.
- Through this program I learned a lot of new things and this program made me even more familiar with what I already knew.
- Through the SDL program my graphic designing skills have improved and my video editing has become much better.
- Through the SDL program, I got information about basic medicines, which can be very helpful in my domestic life.
- Through this course we were very well explained about the basis of different things which is the best thing in this programme.
- The duration of this course was of course very limited but it taught us a lot and we were very well informed about what is the purpose of our life and what we can do to help our nation and our country, and what is in accordance with the principles of Islam and is also beneficial for them.

- The behavior of the teacher who guided us and his way of explaining was excellent.
- It is my request to the entire team of the "Labbaik IT Services" to continue to organize such programs that give the youth an opportunity to learn well.
- I pray to Allah to reward your entire team and all those who have participated in organizing this program, Ameen.
